REGULATIONS RELATIVE TO PROVINCIAL GOVERNMENT EMPLOYEES ENLISTING IN ARMED FORCES.November 30th, 1954.

HIS HONOUR the Lieutenant-Governor, by Order in Council No. 2699, approved November 30th, 1954, has been pleased to order that the regulations governing the enlistment of Provincial Government employees, approved by Order in Council No. 2223, approved October 5th, 1950, providing regulations relative to the enlistment of Provincial Government employees in the Canadian Army Special Force, and by Order in Council No. 2857, approved December 20th, 1950, extending the privileges granted under the aforementioned regulations to include Provincial Government employees enlisting in the Active Armed Forces of Canada, be revised by rescinding said Orders in Council, and substituting therefor the following regulations:—

REGULATIONS GOVERNING LEAVE TO PROVINCIAL GOVERNMENT EMPLOYEES FOR ENLISTMENT IN HER MAJESTY'S FORCES.1. In these regulations:—

- (a) "Regular Forces" means any component of the Canadian Forces consisting of officers and men enrolled for continuing full-time service;
- (b) "Special Forces" means the Royal Canadian Navy Special Force, the Canadian Army Special Force, and the Royal Canadian Air Force Special Force, as constituted from time to time by the Minister of National Defence;
- (c) "Reserve Forces" means the components of the Canadian Forces that are referred to in the "National Defence Act" as the Reserve Forces.

2. All permanent employees and all other employees holding positions which can be considered of a permanent nature may be treated as being on leave of absence without pay from their respective civil positions for the period during which they are enlisted or enrolled for service:—

- (a) In the Special Forces; or
- (b) In the Regular Forces; or
- (c) In the Special Forces, and subsequently thereto in the Regular Forces; or
- (d) With the Regular Forces when called out for full-time continuous duty therewith from the Reserve Forces:

Provided, however, that the period of service in any of the forces shall not exceed three years.

3. The benefits of this Order shall not be extended to:—

- (a) Any person who is not honourably discharged from the forces; or
- (b) Any person who fails within six months of the date of his discharge to return to the duties of his position or to make application for appointment to a position, unless his failure to return is due to the fact that he has been discharged to the Department of Veterans' Affairs and is still undergoing treatment. In such cases, leave of absence shall be considered as not terminating until six months after discharge from that Department.

4. The rights and privileges granted by these regulations are conditional upon each employee forwarding his application for leave of absence for the purpose of enlistment through the head of the department concerned.

"HOSPITAL INSURANCE ACT"

WHEREAS the Provincial Hospital Advisory Council as originally constituted by Order in Council No. 1697, approved July 28th, 1948, was reconstituted by Orders in Council Nos. 1213 and 1960, approved June 10th and September 1st, 1950, respectively; and whereas the alterations made in the Provincial hospital insurance plan by the "Hospital Insurance Act Amendment Act, 1954," shifted the emphasis from the collection of premiums to matters of a medical and medico-administrative nature; it is deemed necessary and advisable to again reconstitute the Provincial Hospital Advisory Council so as to provide for increased representation of the medical profession on the said Council:

Therefore, His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor in Council has been pleased to order that, pursuant to sections 23 and 35 of the "Hospital Insurance Act," being chapter 151 of the "Revised Statutes of British Columbia, 1948," the appointment of each person who is now a member of the Provincial Hospital Advisory Council be rescinded.

NOTICE

NOTICE is hereby given that an application will be made to the Legislative Assembly of the Province of British Columbia, at its next session, on behalf of North-west Telephone Company, for an Act to amend the "North-west Telephone Company's Act, 1929," for the following purposes:—

1. To amend section 9 by striking out all the words after the word "Company" in the sixth line of clause (c) of subsection (1) thereof. The words to be struck out are as follows: "Provided that the amount for the time being remaining undischarged of moneys so borrowed or raised by the directors (otherwise than by the issue of shares) shall not at any time exceed the paid-up capital of the Company, without the sanction of the Company in general meeting."

2. To amend section 11 by striking out clause (l) thereof, and substituting therefor the following:—

"(l) As ancillary and incidental to the foregoing, all powers set out in subsection (1) of section 22 of the "Companies Act," except clause (n) thereof:

"(m) At any time and from time to time to pay a commission to any person or company wheresoever incorporated in consideration of his or its subscribing or agreeing to subscribe, whether conditionally or absolutely, for any shares in the Company, or procuring or agreeing to procure subscriptions, whether conditionally or absolutely, for any shares in the Company, and to remunerate any person or company wheresoever incorporated for services rendered or to be rendered in placing or assisting to place or guaranteeing the placing of any of the shares in the Company's capital, or any bonds, debentures, or other securities of the Company, or in or about the conduct of or the sale or disposition of the business or assets of the Company."

3. To repeal section 21, and substitute the following therefor:—

"21. The provisions of the 'Companies Act' relating to change of name, the appointment and duties of auditors, and accounts and balance-sheets shall apply to the Company."

4. To repeal section 22, and substitute the following therefor:—

"22. The 'Companies Clauses Act,' being chapter 62 of the 'Revised Statutes of British Columbia, 1948,' with the exception of the provisions of sections 6, 46, 47, 50 to 54 (inclusive), 57 to 93 (inclusive), 104 to 112 (inclusive), 117 to 123 (inclusive), 126, 136 to 143 (inclusive), 150 to 155 (inclusive), 167, 168, and 177 to 181 (inclusive), is incorporated with this Act."

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY

NOTICE

PRIVATE BILLS

NOTICE is hereby given that, pursuant to Standing Orders, no petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House in its forthcoming Session after Thursday, February 3rd, 1955.

Dated November 18th, 1954.

EDWIN K. DEBECK,
1024-no25 *Clerk of the Legislative Assembly,
British Columbia.*

PRIVATE BILLS

EXCERPT FROM STANDING ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS

100. (1) All applications to the Legislative Assembly for Private Bills of any nature whatsoever shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant.

(2) Such notice shall be published in The British Columbia Gazette and once a week in one leading daily newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. The notice in such newspaper to appear on Wednesday of each week.

(3) When the proposed Bill is of such a nature that it may particularly affect one or more electoral districts, the notice shall furthermore be published once a week if possible in some newspaper in every electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper published in the electoral district nearest thereto.

(4) The publication of such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of four weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

97. No petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no motion for the suspension or modification of this Standing Order shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid, the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required in respect of such Bill by this rule, unless the House shall order to the contrary.

98. (1) Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session:

(a) A printed copy of such Bill:

(b) A copy of the petition to be presented to the House:

(c) Copies of the notices published, with publication proved by a statutory declaration or affidavit to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House.

(2) At the time of depositing the Bill and petition the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars.

(3) If a copy of the Bill, petition, and notices proved as aforesaid shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session or if the petition has not been presented to the House within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees shall be returned.

101. Every petition signed by an agent or attorney in fact shall be accompanied by the authority of such agent or attorney in fact, and the petition shall not be deemed to be filed with the Clerk until this is done.

102. Before any petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a toll-bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Standing Order 100, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts or vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a draw-bridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

103. (1) All Private Bills for Acts of incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference to the clauses of the general Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills: Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the general Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Standing Order shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

(2) Every Bill for an Act of incorporation, where a form of model Bill has been adopted, shall be drawn in accordance with the model Bill (copies of model Bills may be obtained from the Clerk of the House). Any provisions contained in any such Bill which are not in accord with the model Bill shall be inserted between brackets or underlined, and shall be so printed.

(3) Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for same.

107. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in small-pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring 10¾ inches by 7½ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page: the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

In the case of Bills to incorporate companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 98, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

All cheques in payment of fees must be certified.

Dated January 5th, 1949.

" COMPANIES ACT "

I HEREBY CERTIFY that there have this day been registered pursuant to the "Companies Act," an office copy of an order of the Honourable Mr. Justice Manson, dated the 8th day of October, 1954, confirming wholly a special resolution of the Seaboard Advertising Co. Ltd. for the alteration of the objects of the Company and a copy of the memorandum of association of the Company as altered.

The objects of the Company now are:—

(a) (1) To carry on a general advertising and commercial display business in all its branches, both as principals and agents; (2) to buy, sell, manufacture, and deal in all kinds of materials, substances, machinery, motors, apparatus, transformers, engines, instruments, lamps, wires, appliances, fixtures, equipment, implements, and tools in connection with the utilization of electricity or other form of power or of illumination and rare gases of the air for purposes of advertising, display, and illumination; (3) to carry on business as printers, painters, decorators, designers, and bill-posters, and to carry on a general promotion, commission, jobbing, agency, and brokerage business in connection with advertising of all kinds; (4) to purchase, take, or otherwise acquire by original subscription or otherwise and to hold, sell, or otherwise dispose of shares, stock, debentures, bonds, and (or) other obligations in and of any other company or corporation and to vote all shares or securities so held:

(b) To purchase or otherwise acquire, manufacture, sell, lease, or otherwise deal in, erect, construct, equip, maintain, and operate advertising and other signs illuminated by electricity, rare gases of the air, or other substances or elements, and other signs, show-cards, commercial displays, display fences, bill-boards, sign-boards, buildings, and other structures and places suitable for advertising displays and other purposes:

(c) To solicit, obtain, prepare, design, print, publish, issue, and distribute advertisements of all kinds and to contract for, purchase, secure, control, and sell or otherwise dispose of space in and portions of magazines, periodicals, newspapers, and other publications, and to contract for and to cause the insertion or publication of advertisements in magazines, periodicals, newspapers, and other publications:

(d) To manufacture, buy, sell, or dispose of and deal in and with every kind and description of sign, show-card, envelope, label, name-plate, badge, button, calendar, or other device, prints, patent plates, copyrights, bases, type-printing machinery and plant, machinery and specialties of all kinds useful in printing establishments or in connection with advertising for commercial and other purposes:

(e) To carry on business generally as metal and tin-plate printers, map makers, binders, manufacturers of coated papers, box board and pasted cardboard, wallpaper, and playing-cards, lithographers, photographers, engravers, stereotypers, electrotypers, embossers, engrossers, die stampers, book publishers, bookbinders, paper makers, envelope and paper-bag, tag, label, and box makers, stationers, manufacturers, advertising agents, dealers in and vendors of office and other supplies; to buy, sell, manufacture, trade, work, and deal in plant, machinery, tools, furniture, supplies, appliances, and all articles requisite in, used or connected with or which can be used in connection with the said arts and business or any of them:

(f) To acquire, construct, lease, maintain, develop, operate, and dispose of works for the generation, accumulation, and distribution of light, heat, and power of all kinds and derived from all sources:

(g) To enter into any arrangements with any authorities, municipal, local, or otherwise that may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and obtain from any such authority any rights, privileges, and concessions which the Company may think it desirable to obtain, and carry on, exercise, and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges, and concessions:

(h) To adopt such means of making known the products of the Company as may seem expedient, and in particular by advertising in the press, by circulars, by purchase and exhibition of works of art or interest, by publication of books and periodicals and by granting prizes, rewards, and donations:

(i) To consolidate or amalgamate with any other company having objects similar in whole or in part to those of this Company:

(j) To pay out of the funds of the Company all or any expenses of, incidental to, or incurred in connection with the formation, incorporation, and organization of the Company and the raising of its share capital or to contract with any company to pay the same.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this seventh day of December, one thousand nine hundred and fifty-four.
